Introduction

St Francis De Sales once said, “Everyone needs half an hour of prayer each day, except when busy, then they need an hour”.

To live as our God asked, “Act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly” we must talk to Him.
Don't you think so?

Perhaps, praying for half an hour is like taking the time to mail, text or phone a great friend. If we don't nurture our relationship with our friends, mother and father, brother and sister, it will fade and fall apart.

God Loves You

A Blessing

✠ Lord Jesus, you guided me to this mystical moment in my life. Thank you for such wonders.

You created me in your own likeness. Thank you for the grace to renew my journey, hand in hand with you, when I falter.

Lord Jesus, bless me, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. ✠

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteous sake, they shall be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who suffer persecution for justice's sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Our Lady of La Vang

In 1798, Catholicism in Vietnam was greatly suppressed and Catholics were persecuted forcing many to seek refuge in the rain forest of La Vang.

The environment was very inhospitable and the lack of shelter and food gave rise to sickness, disease and death.

Often communities would gather at night to pray the rosary. One night, while a group were gathered at a commonly used meeting place, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared in a tree close by. She was wearing the traditional Vietnamese dress, áo dài, holding the Child Jesus in her arms and accompanied by two angels.

The Blessed Virgin comforted the community and told them to boil leaves from nearby plants to treat their illnesses.

The story of the apparition spread and the site soon became a place of prayer and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Today, La Vang is the Vietnamese National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Mother - Star of the Sea

Many years ago the Sisters of St Paul de Chartres created a small Marian shrine outside their convent. With the local community, they regularly used it as a place for quiet prayer and reflection.

In October 2006, Da Nang City was at the centre of a super storm, with wind speeds reaching 130kms/hr. Enormous damage was done throughout the city yet, miraculously, the exposed Blessed Virgin Mary statue and shrine were untouched. The local community found comfort at the shrine knowing that, despite the city-wide destruction, God was still caring for them.

In 2009, Da Nang Authority cancelled their house-building plans for the site and created a beautiful Mother of the Sea Memorial Park instead.

Thousands of people visit the site annually and many more Marian miracles have been reported.

On the first Saturday of every month a Shrine Mass is held by the Bishop of Da Nang.

Saint Andrew Dung-Lac (1795 – 1839)

St Andrew was born into a poor pagan family at Bac-Ninh, North Vietnam. At 12, his family moved to Hanoi to find work. There they found food and shelter from Christians. He was able to pursue an education and chose to be baptised a Catholic. He studied theology and became a catechist and then a Priest. He was tireless in his preaching and pastoral care whilst living a simple pious life. He was imprisoned for his religious conviction and Clerical works but released following donations from his community. In 1839 he was again arrested having visited an imprisoned fellow Vietnamese Priest, Peter Thi, to hear his confession. Again donations liberated him and Peter Thi but, it was short lived. They were soon rearrested, severely tortured and executed. In many ways

St Andrew represents, not only the 117 similarly martyred Vietnamese Saints for their faith but, the estimated 130,000 Christians who were persecuted and died in Vietnam between 1625 and 1886. Today there are more than six million Catholics in Vietnam, and it's growing; the rewards of Andrew Dung-Lac, the 117 other Shepherds and the unrecorded executed thousands.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy. Hail our life, our sweetness and our hope. To Thee do Thee do we cry poor

then most gracious advocate, Thy eyes of mercy towards us; and after this our exile show onto us the blessed fruit of Thy womb Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O
sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

Candle/Incense Offering

Lord Jesus, look kindly on my friends, my difficulties and decisions.

May this offering be a light for you to enlighten me.

May it be a fire for you to burn out of me all pride, selfishness and impurity.

May it be a flame for you to bring warmth into my heart; warmth towards my family, my neighbours and all whom I meet.

Jesus, through the hands of Mary,
Virgin and Mother,
I place in your care, this, my special intention... (Share your request...)

By making this offering, I wish to give you something of myself; the love of my heart.

Jesus, help me to live close to you in prayer today.

Thank you Jesus, thank you Mary.
Amen.

Day-by-Day (Richard of Chichester)

Praise be to Thee, O Lord Jesus Christ For all the benefits you have given us, for all the pains and insults which you have borne for us.
O most merciful Redeemer, Friend and Brother, May, we see you more clearly, Love you more dearly, and follow
You more nearly. Day by day.
Amen

Faith (St Francis)

Gracious and Holy Father, give us the wisdom to discover You, the intelligence to understand You, the diligence to seek after You,
the patience to wait for You, eyes to behold You, a heart to meditate upon You, and a life to proclaim You, through the power of the Spirit of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Guidance (Basil of Caesarea)

Steer the ship of my life, good Lord, to your quiet harbour, where I can be safe from the storms of evil and conflict. Show me the course I should take. Renew in me the gift of discernment, so that I can always see the right direction in which I should go. And give me the strength and the courage to choose the right course, even when the sea is rough and the waves are high, knowing that through enduring hardship and danger, in your name I shall find comfort and peace.

Holy Are Your Ways

Help me to understand, Lord, that what counts is not the road travelled, but simply putting my hand in yours and journeying side by side with you. Lord Jesus, you are the joy of my journey, the repose in our Father's home. Holy, holy is the Lord, for eternal is your love.

Humility (St Alphonsus Ligouri)

Most humble Jesus, give me a share of your humility. Take from my heart, everything that displeases you; convert it totally to you, so that I may no longer will or desire anything other than what you will.

Joy (Mother Teresa of Calcutta)

I smile, and the world smiles with me. I laugh, and the world laughs too. I praise you, dear God, and the world breaks out in song. For you are the source of my joy, the wellspring of my love, the key to my compassion. Be with me today, tomorrow, and forever, so that I may bring your joy to all I meet.

Light (Gospel Extracts)

The light of God surrounds me, the love of God enfolds me, the power of God protects me, the presence of God watches over me, wherever I am, God is, and where God is, all is perfect.

Love

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, and always perseveres.

Peace (St Francis of Assisi)

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;

Where there is hatred, let me
sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is error, truth;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Poor

Lord Jesus, we pray, that the flames of your Divine love may burn away all traces of vice within us, and that we may be practical and zealous in the service of the poor. Amen.

Priests & Religious

St Paul, guide all priests and religious. Help them realize that their actions speak louder than any words. Teach them to use their talents to convey God's message but, to rely above all, on the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Renewal

Lord Jesus, give us humility wherever pride reigns, pardon wherever offense abides, grace wherever sin abounds; we pray to you; Jesus Christ, risen Lord, have mercy on us. Amen.

Sick

Father, your Son accepted our sufferings, teaching us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness or disease realise that they are chosen to be Saints, and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world.

Solace

May Christ support us all the day long, till the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over and our work is done. Then in his mercy may he give us a safe lodging, and holy rest and peace at the last. Amen.

Stillness (John of the Cross)

O Blessed Jesus, give me stillness of soul in You. Let Your mighty calmness reign in me. Rule me, O King of Gentleness, King of Peace.

Teach Us (Ignatius of Loyola)

Teach us Good Lord; To serve you as you deserve; To give and not to count the cost; To fight and not to heed the wounds; To toil and not to seek for rest; To labour and to ask for no reward, Save that of knowing we do your will.

Trust (Ignatius of Loyola)

O Christ Jesus, when all is darkness and we feel our weakness and helplessness, give us the sense of Your presence, Your love, and Your strength. Help us to have perfect trust in Your protecting love and strengthening power, so that nothing may frighten or worry us, for, living close to You, we shall see Your hand, Your purpose, Your will through all things.

Vocations (Joseph Bernadin)

Lord of the harvest, your word finds a home in our hearts, calls us into community and invites us to generous service of the human family. Bless with courage and spirit your priestly people, called to full participation in the one Body of Christ. May many choose to respond in public service to your call offered in Jesus' name. Amen

The Creed (All)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (All bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(Return upright) For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(All KNEEL)

(The following is the commonly used Eucharistic Prayer II. There are other alternatives which the Priest may select instead.)

• Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness. Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and ✠ Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my body, which will be given up for you.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of me.

- Priest: The mystery of faith.
- People: Either 1, 2 or 3
 1. We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

2. When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

 3. Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your
 4. Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.
- Priest: Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his death and resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you. Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit. Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world, and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with N. our Pope and N. our Bishop and all the clergy.

(In Masses for the Dead, the following may be added:

Remember your servant N., whom you have called (today) from this world to yourself. Grant that he/she who was united with your Son in a death like his, may also be one with him in his Resurrection.)

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy: welcome them into the light of your face. Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with the blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages, we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life, and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, for ever and ever.

• All: Amen.

(All STAND)

The Communion Rite

(The sharing of our Lord's

The Lord's Prayer

- Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:
- People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

- Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

• People: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

• Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

• People: Amen.

- Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
 - People: And with your spirit.
 - Priest: Let us offer each other the sign of peace.
- All: Share a customary sign of peace.

THE HOLY ROSARY

The Rosary

The Rosary is a formalised prayer routine usually said with the help of rosary beads. It is traditionally attributed to St Dominic (1170-1221) who founded the Dominican Order. Although prayer beads were already in use for probably many centuries before St Dominic's time, he preached its use following a vision from The Blessed Virgin Mary who was holding rosary beads in her hands. In more recent Marian visions, Our Lady has continued to promise her very special protection and blessings on all those who recite the rosary.

Rosary Mysteries

There are four groups of Mysteries. Each group recalls major events in the life of Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary. Pope John Paul II suggested we pray each of the four Mysteries on the following days:

Joyful – Mon & Sat

Sorrowful – Tues & Fri

Luminous – Thu

Glorious – Wed and Sun

Enjoy your Rosary, with Mary and Jesus.

The Joyful Mysteries

The Joyful Mysteries reflect Mary's embrace as the earthly Mother to Jesus the Son of God.

1. Annunciation

2. Visitation

3. Birth of Jesus

4. Presentation of Jesus in the Temple

5. Finding of Jesus in the Temple

The Glorious Mysteries

The word 'Glory' implies a very special honour or distinction. The Glorious mysteries underpin much our faith.

1. Resurrection

2. Ascension

3. Decent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles

4. Assumption of Mary into Heaven

5. Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven

The Luminous Mysteries

Pope Saint John Paul II devised the five Luminous Mysteries. As well as highlighting major points in Jesus' life, they also reflect John Paul's devotion to Mary.

- 1. Baptism of Jesus
- 2. Miracle at Cana
- 3. Proclamation of the Kingdom
- 4. Transfiguration
- 5. Institution of the Eucharist

The Sorrowful Mysteries

Why would Jesus want to suffer and die for me? For many of us the answer is beyond our limited comprehension, suffice to say that His love for all mankind was and remains limitless.

- 1. Agony in the Garden
- 2. Scourging at the Pillar
- 3. Crowning with Thorns
- 4. Carrying of the Cross
- 5. Crucifixion and Death of Our Lord

The Novena Divine Mercy

Novena Day 1

Let us pray: For all mankind but especially sinners.

Most Merciful Jesus, whose very nature it is to have compassion on us and to forgive us, do not look upon our sins but upon our trust which we place in Your infinite goodness. Receive us all into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart, and never let us escape from it. We beg this of You by Your love which unites You to the Father and the Holy Spirit.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon all mankind and especially upon poor sinners, all enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, show us Your mercy, that we may praise the omnipotence of Your mercy for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Novena Day 2

Let us pray: For the souls of Priests, Nuns and Religious.

Most Merciful Jesus, from whom comes all that is good, increase Your grace in us, that we may perform worthy works of mercy, and that all who see us may glorify the Father of Mercy who is in heaven.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the company of chosen ones in Your vineyard upon the souls of priests and religious; and endow them with the strength of Your blessing. For the love of the Heart of Your Son, in which they are enfolded, impart to them Your power and light, that they may be able to guide others in the way of salvation, and with one voice sing praise to Your boundless mercy for ages without end. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Novena Day 3

Let us pray: For all Faithful Christians.

Most Merciful Jesus, from the treasury of Your mercy, You impart Your graces in great abundance to each and all. Receive us into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart and never let us escape from It. We beg this of You by that most wondrous love for the heavenly Father with which Your Heart burns so fiercely.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon faithful souls, as upon the inheritance of Your Son. For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, grant them Your blessing and surround them with Your constant protection. Thus may they never fail in love or lose the treasure of the holy faith, but rather, with all the hosts of Angels and Saints, may they glorify Your boundless mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Novena Day 4

Let us pray: For unbelievers and those who do not yet know God.

Most compassionate Jesus, You are the Light of the whole world. Receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of pagans who as yet do not know You. Let the rays of Your grace enlighten them that they, too, together with us, may extol Your wonderful mercy; and do not let them escape from the abode which is Your Most Compassionate Heart.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls of pagans and of those who as yet do not know You, but who are enclosed in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. Draw them to the light of the Gospel. These souls do not know what great happiness it is to love You. Grant that they, too, may extol the generosity of Your mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Novena Day 5

Let us pray: For those who have separated themselves from the Church.

Most Merciful Jesus, Goodness Itself, You do not refuse light to those who seek it of You. Receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of heretics and schismatics. Draw them by Your light into the unity of the Church, and do not let them escape from the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart; but bring it about that they, too, come to glorify the generosity of Your mercy.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls of heretics and schismatics, who have squandered Your blessings and misused Your graces by obstinately persisting in their errors. Do not look upon their errors, but upon the love of Your own Son and upon His bitter Passion, which He underwent for their sake, since they, too, are enclosed in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. Bring it about that they also may glorify Your great mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Novena Day 6

Let us pray: For the meek and humble and souls of little children.

Most Merciful Jesus, You yourself have said, "Learn from Me for I am meek and humble of heart." Receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart all meek and humble souls and the souls of little children. These souls send all heaven into ecstasy and they are the heavenly Father's favourites. They are a sweet-smelling bouquet before the throne of God; God himself takes delight in their fragrance. These souls have a permanent abode in Your Most Compassionate Heart, O Jesus, and they unceasingly sing out a hymn of love and mercy.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon meek souls, upon humble souls, and upon the souls of little children who are enfolded in the abode which is the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. These souls bear the closest resemblance to Your Son. Their fragrance rises from the earth and reaches Your very throne. Father of mercy and of all goodness, I beg You by the love You bear these souls and by the delight

You take in them: Bless the whole world, that all souls together may sing out the praises of Your mercy for endless ages. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Novena Day 7

Let us pray: For those who venerate and glorify the Divine Mercy of God.

Most Merciful Jesus, whose Heart is Love Itself, receive into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls of those who particularly extol and venerate the greatness of Your mercy. These souls are mighty with the very power of God Himself. In the midst of all afflictions and adversities they go forward, confident of Your mercy. These souls are united to Jesus and carry all mankind on their shoulders. These souls will not be judged severely, but Your mercy will embrace them as they depart from this life.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls who glorify and venerate Your greatest attribute, that of Your fathomless mercy, and who are enclosed in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. These souls are a living Gospel; their hands are full of deeds of mercy, and their spirit, overflowing with joy, sings a canticle of mercy to You, O Most High! I beg You O God: Show them Your mercy according to the hope and trust they have placed in You. Let there be accomplished in them the promise of Jesus, who said to them, I Myself will defend as My own glory, during their lifetime, and especially at the hour of their death, those souls who will venerate My fathomless mercy. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Novena Day 8

Let us pray: For the Souls in Purgatory.

Most Merciful Jesus, You Yourself have said that You desire mercy; so I bring into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart the souls in Purgatory, souls who are very dear to You, and yet, who must make retribution to Your justice. May the streams of Blood and Water which gushed forth from Your Heart put out the flames of the purifying fire, that in that place, too, the power of Your mercy may be praised.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon the souls suffering in Purgatory, who are enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. I beg You, by the sorrowful Passion of Jesus Your Son, and by all the bitterness with which His most sacred Soul was flooded: Manifest Your mercy to the souls who are under Your just scrutiny. Look upon them in no other way but only through the Wounds of Jesus, Your dearly beloved Son; for we firmly believe that there is no limit to Your goodness and compassion. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Novena Day 9

Let us pray: For those who have become lukewarm and indifferent in their faith.

Most Compassionate Jesus, You are Compassion Itself. I bring lukewarm souls into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart. In this fire of Your pure love let these tepid souls, who like corpses, filled You with such deep loathing, be once again set aflame. O Most Compassionate Jesus, exercise the omnipotence of Your mercy and draw them into the very ardour of Your love, and bestow upon them the gift of holy love, for nothing is beyond Your power.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon lukewarm souls, who are nonetheless enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. Father of Mercy, I beg You by the bitter Passion of Your Son and by His three-hour agony on the Cross: Let them, too, glorify the abyss of Your mercy. Amen.

Prayer: The Chaplet of Divine Mercy —
